

The Wanamaker Store.

The School of Style First Days of the Fall Term

THIS store does not merely sell goods;—it teaches. It is a College of Fashion, and the leader of its kind in America. The public recognition of this fact is sufficiently established to clear this statement from all trace of hyperbole.

THE MILLINERY EXHIBIT

on which the doors opened yesterday is one branch of the Fall teaching, and has been appreciated as such by the public generally. We promised the largest and finest display of Fall hats ever seen in any store on this side of the Atlantic. It is here.

The New Things in Laces and Neckwear

form another object lesson in the course of Styles Worth Knowing. An important lesson, for this is to be a lace season. How extensively so, you can learn from this display. All that lace can enter upon in apparel, from the simplest scarf to the entire Princess gown, is shown in hundreds upon hundreds of forms. Note how the butterflies fit through them. The butterfly is characteristic of this Fall's designing. Paris styles, plus all that London can send, plus all that New York knows.

The Fall Costumes, Suits and Wraps

A Wanamaker collection, therefore unequalled in extent, unapproached in variety, unquestionable in styles. Paris, London and New York productions. Wanamaker selections. Prices from $10 to $225. The suits at all prices show more elegance and finish in better materials than any ever heretofore shown here or elsewhere. This is especially remarkable in the grades priced from $10 to $50.

The Fall Dress Goods and Silks

Loom-marvels from Southern France; choicest specimens of Parisian design; sturdy woolens of Germany and Northern England; American efforts and reproductions, honest in their inexpensiveness;—a fabric collection that can neither be catalogued nor summarized except by the word Completion.

If choice that is limited only by the limits of fabric manufacture, and a desirable policy of exclusiveness in pattern pleases you, then you will be pleased in choosing here.
